DEPARTMENT "X"
122 FULTON STREET EAST
GRAND RAPIDS 2, MICHIGAN

Your Gifts reflect your personality; and must compliment the good taste of those to whom they are sent. These "Thoughts for Christmas" have been very carefully selected to meet this qualification.

The Quaint American Furniture is built of selected American cabinet woods, largely Cherry. The cabinetry is all hand-work by patient craftsmen of the old school. The rich deep cherry color and patina of the finish capture the elusive deep tones of "Baltimore Mahogany", and blend equally well with walnut, maple or mahogany.

Every Care has been exercised to assure that all of the items shown will be in stock, with prompt shipment on receipt of your order. If our stock (which we have made every effort to be ample) should become sold out, some time will be required for replacement. Therefore, all orders will be filled in the order of their receipt. And because of the congestion of Christmas Season shipping, it is sincerely suggested that you

Place Your Order Early

Prices include cost of shipment, to your nearest freight or express office, or to you by parcel post, as indicated. Sorry, but we cannot ship C.O.D. Please send check or money order.

Custom-Built

Upholstered Furniture

Your upholstered furniture from Carl Forslund is custom-built, and hand tailored in your personal choice of fine coverings, especially appropriate to the design.

The upholstering is done by journeymen upholsterers who take such personal pride in their craftsmanship that they personally sign their name to each piece they produce. These men completely upholster a piece from start to finish, using, literally, bushels and bushels of selected, black, curly horse hair. This produces the finest quality without any exception that it is possible to produce in America today. We employ no "short cuts," no streamlined "production methods." It is slow, honest work of real craftsmanship to produce a masterpiece of upholstering excellence for a lifetime of beauty, comfort, and enjoyment.

Our fine custom-built upholstering requires approximately three weeks for the special hand work. Your Christmas order should be placed very early.

Mr. Forslund personally visits the upholstery shop every day. He will personally select and send you swatches of covers for your personal choice. These will include types of covers best suited to the design of each piece, in a range of authentic and fashionable colors. Please indicate your general color preference as a guide to Mr. Forslund.
